The poppy represents great bravery, as a symbol of war remembrance the world over. In New Zealand the poppy commemorates not only the members of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps (ANZAC) who fought at Gallipoli, but now more broadly honours all those who died in service of their country, as well as those who still serve. This charm is a beautiful and lasting tribute to all those loved and lost. The sparkling poppy seed, crafted from black cubic zirconia, symbolises release from pain and sorrow, towards peaceful rest.
